

The Power of Trees – An Arbornaut's View of the Planet

The GMG and the Green Mountain Academy of Lifelong Learning proudly present a captivating speaker event featuring Meg Lowman.

Tuesday, June 11th
Long Trail School
Dorset, VT
5:30 – 7 PM

Meg Lowman loves trees. She loves them so much that she has dedicated her life to learning, researching, and protecting the world's canopy ecosystems. Over the years, "Canopy Meg" as she is nicknamed, has worked in more than 40 countries on six continents, conducting pioneering research and conservation in some of Earth's most remote and endangered forests. Considered one of the world's first "arbornauts", Dr. Lowman is a scientist, explorer, conservationist, mentor, storyteller, and educator. She is also a visionary leader whose life is a remarkable journey of discovery, adventure, and inspiration..
